REDMOND, Oregon — Redmond Proficiency Academy high school students will perform music sets at the Redmond Farmers Market on Tuesday, Sept. 10, 2019 from 3 to 6 p.m.

“Local gigs in the community are a great opportunity for our talented students to perform in front of an audience and gain valuable confidence and experience as musicians,” said Jonathan Moore, RPA high school music director.

Students from grades 9-12 will perform as individuals or in a small group and perform 3-6 song selections of original music and popular music covers.
